Dear Harry,

There was a time when I had duplicates of some of the pictures.

However, over the years, I've let people like you have what duplicates I was able to obtain.

Today I haven't a single duplicate of any kind.

In fact, I no longer have some only copies. I've lonaed them out and not gotten them back.

Sorry.

Thanks for the enclosure. If you see any stories on their gathering in Boston I'd be interested.

Best regards,
